Subject: Would have time to join Barb Masters and I on a quick conference call/zoom this afternoon or tomorrow morning?

Received: Thur 3/26/2020 6:03:03 PM

We're having problems with local health departments. For example, in Albany, Kentucky one of our team members at the plant contracted Covid19. In response to that situation, we alerted FSIS and the local health department (Lake Cumberland District Health Dept). The local health department came out to our plant this morning and they were insisting that our workers maintain a distance of at least 6 feet from one another. We think they're going to back down on this demand. However, we're having a similar problem at our Logansport, IN Hog plant where we employ 2200 team members. So far, we've been able to handle these situations, but at some point we may need to get Mindy involved if we are forced to shut down a plant. Would you have 15 mins available to meet with us before your 11:00 am call tomorrow? Thanks, Chuck
