Thanks, Jennie. Your edits look good to me. In view of what I understand to be potential POTUS activity on this, if others have edits, could you please send by 10?

Paul - Thanks for adding our colleagues who have been central to this effort. Thanks, also, for holding firm against the newest round of mission creep.

Thank you, Kellyanne. Adding Russ, Jennie, and Olivia as well. The new CDC draft includes a significant amount of new content, much of which seems to raise religious liberty concerns. In the attached, I have proposed several passages for deletion to address those concerns (as well as a few other necessary edits). If these edits are acceptable to you all, we could tell CDC, as early in the morning as possible, that they are free to publish contingent on striking the offensive passages.
